Jason Prats started at Calloway Title and Escrow, LLC at the young age of 19 years old where he worked in the copy room and as the courier for the company. During his years working at Calloway Title and Escrow, LLC, Jason learned many aspects of the real estate process, from title searches in the record room to assisting with closings.

After graduating from Tucker High School, Jason took some time away from his education to focus on work and his family, but returned and received his AA in Christian Ministries and his BA in Biblical Studies from Indiana Wesleyan University.

Jason is active in his community and enjoys coaching youth baseball and basketball. Jason is an Atlanta native and currently resides in Braselton with his wife Audra and their children Logan and Reagan.
